

I Came Within An Inch...: The Michigan Home School INCH Conference: Writing Explosion (Volume 1)

Want to be a writer? The authors in this book entered the Michigan Home Education Conference (INCH) unpublished and left published authors. Youth came to class with a pre-written short story based on the prompt I Came Within an Inch... During class they learned character development, plot and dialogue and how to refine their story. Participants received guidelines and study sheets to help them develop their story prior to class time. If you would like to see your child's story in print and as an ebook, contact your local home school conference and ask the faculty director to invite Christian Devotions Ministries (cindy@christiandevotions.us) to your next event.
