

Hatching The Nest Egg: Achieve Super-Early Retirement Without Side Gigs, Gambling, Or An Above-Average Income

My husband and I were able to retire early. I'm talking, by our early forties. No, we didn't get rich in network marketing, do day-trading, or flip houses. And neither of us—not even my geek husband—ever brought home a six-figure income. Want to know how we did it? Great, because I want to tell you so that you can do it, too! This book reveals the steps to finding complete financial freedom, including the two greatest tools for achieving early retirement, how to get out of debt faster than Speedy Gonzales, and how to use your love for shopping to increase your income! You also learn about two lucrative investing strategies that are so low-risk that their investors barely lost anything in the crash of 2008. Along the way, I share our story of personal finance ups and downs so that you can avoid making the same mistakes we did and reach financial independence as soon as ten years within graduating college! If you are tired of having too much money left over at the end of the month if you yearn to get out of the rat race and take life a bit easier if you know there's something better out there than the usual college-forty-year career-retire at sixty-five scenario, but aren't quite sure how to get there, you have come to the right place!
